

Media ownership is already too concentrated, and independent journalism, the essence of a free marketplace of ideas, is the victim of monopoly power. The public is the victim. I want rules in place that serve public rather than private interests. I oppose taking a vote that leads to more media consolidation. On June 2nd, I urge you to retain the current ownership rules. Does the FCC have the collective political will and wisdom to do the right thing? If so, then prove it. Thank you.